

Institutional Distinctiveness

One of the major goals and objectives of the Senior College is as follows:

To provide quality education in a secular environment to all sections of society especially the financially and socially underprivileged.

A special objective mentioned is as follows:

To provide girl students equal educational opportunities.

Mahatma Jyotiba Phule who started the first girls school in India, in Maharashtra, is one of the founding members of Camp Education Society. His wife Savitribai Phule's missionary zeal for the upliftment of women is a source of inspiration to the management, sister institutions and faculty of the Camp Education Society.

The performance of the Institution with regard to this special objective is commendable. The Institution is committed to the upliftment of women and to providing them a safe environment to grow into strong, independent women capable of facing the vicissitudes of life. The Institution provides opportunities for holistic development of girl students.

1) Higher proportion of girl students:

The Camp Education Society believes in and provides co-education for boys and girls. The proportion of girl students in the Institution has been consistently higher, as compared to boys as is seen in the figures in the table below:

Year	Total no. of Students	No. of Boys	No. of Girls
2018-19	2026	883	1144

2) Safety and Security:

The Institution ensures an environment where girl students can fulfill their dreams in the knowledge that they are secure.

Various Committees have been set up in the College like the Internal Women's Grievance Redressal Cell and the Gender Equality Committee. It is with a great sense of happiness that we would like to state that there has not been a single complaint in the last five years, in the Womens' Grievance Redressal Cell.

3) Performance in Academics:

Girls have performed consistently well as can be seen in the results of the various Departments of the Institution and in the Departmental Topper's Lists.

4) Participation in cultural activities, sports and intercollegiate competitions ,co-curricular and extra-curricular activities etc:

Girls participate enthusiastically in cultural activities, sports, intercollegiate competitions and co-curricular and extra-curricular activities of the Institution. Opportunities are provided to students to showcase their talents. The different Committees of the Institution provide platforms for honing and developing their skills in Rangoli, Flower –making, Cookery, Cake-making, Painting, Drawing competitions, Mehendi, etc.

5) Student Counseling/Personal Counseling: Girl students approach teachers for personal counseling if and whenever needed. A teacher has been appointed as Student Counselor in the Institution.

6)Activities conducted specially for Girl students:

Various activities are conducted by the SDC and N.S.S. specially for girl students as listed below:

a)Gender Equality and Legal Awareness:

‘Come lets become Fearless’: Guest Lecture by Dr. Bharati Yadav on 1/10/2018).

b)Womens’ Day Celebrations:
